Thanks Thank you so much for the incredible effort and care which went into making the 10am service at All Saints on Sunday 19th October such a special one. It was a true reflection of the dedication and spirit of service and to all who contributed, and all who were part of it, we offer you our greatest appreciation and our most sincere thanks.

Lord Show Us the Way Please see the separate sheet inviting you to be part of the Diocese of Lincoln's engagement events as we discern God's leading of the whole diocese at this time.

Reflective Prayer Space A Heartfelt Thank You: To all who have contributed their works of art to the Reflective Prayer Space—thank you. Your creativity has shaped a contemplative display that invites stillness and a doorway into encountering God.

This collection draws inspiration from the season of Autumn. In the Anglican Calendar, Autumn is honoured as the Creation Season—a time when the natural world becomes our teacher in the art of release. As the light begins to fade, trees and plants make a graceful decision: they let go of their leaves. This is not a sign of defeat, but a deliberate turning. By relinquishing what once sustained them, they prepare to draw strength from the ground beneath. The sun no longer offers what they need, and so they turn inward, downward—toward the deeper source.

A Sacred Invitation: This seasonal surrender speaks gently to our own lives. It reminds us that letting go can be holy. That in releasing, we make space to receive. That in the quiet, God waits. You are warmly invited to enter the stillness. Let the art speak. Let your soul listen. And may you encounter the Divine in the beauty of this space.

Weekly Prayer

(Attributed to Cardinal John Henry Newman)

Jesus, help me to spread your fragrance wherever I go.

Flood my soul with your spirit and life.

Penetrate and possess my whole being so utterly,
that my life may only be a radiance of yours.

Shine through me, and be so in me that every soul I come in contact with may feel your presence in my soul.

Let them look up and see no longer me, but only Jesus!

Stay with me and then I shall begin to shine as you shine, so to shine as to be a light to others.

The light, O Jesus, will be all from you; none of it will be mine.

It will be you, shining on others through me.

Let me thus praise you the way you love best, by shining on those around me.

Let me preach you without preaching, not by words but by my example, by the catching force of the sympathetic influence of what I do, the evident fullness of the love my heart bears to you. Amen.
